Procurement Round Table 2012 Elmer B. Staats Young Acquisition Professional Excellence Award

"$5,000 Could be Yours"

2012 Award nominations due by March 30, 2012.

The Procurement Round Table, in cooperation with the National Contract Management Association, will award $5,000 to a young federal acquisition professional who has contributed significantly to acquisition operations or acquisition policy:

- ❖ Noteworthy contributions to acquisition operation include extraordinary business leadership or team participation in the design, development or execution of an acquisition program or project that furthers an agency's mission. Such contributions also include performance of any single task that merits special recognition because of its contribution to meeting an acquisition's cost, schedule and performance goals.
- ❖ Noteworthy contributions to acquisition policy include the development of a management policy, regulation, data system or other task that significantly enhances the economy, efficiency and effectiveness of an agency's acquisition system or the federal acquisition system.

❖ To be eligible for the Young Acquisition Professional Excellence Award, candidates must:

- have made a noteworthy contribution to acquisition operations or policy within 24 months of the due date for nominations
- have at least five years of civil or military service as contracting officer, contract specialist, procurement analyst or purchasing agent (1102 series)
- be less than 40 years of age as of the due date for nominations
- possess a Bachelor's or higher level academic degree
- demonstrate personal and professional growth

Congratulations to the
